

MARTINA EBM | BIOGRAPHY

Martina Ebm was born in Vienna and grew up in Mondsee. After graduating from high school, she studied theater, film and media studies. In her diploma thesis she dealt with the topic "The Americanization of Stanislavski's acting theory by Sanford Meisner". Already during her studies Martina Ebm acted at various off-theaters and passed the parity stage maturity exam.

Paulus Manker chose Martina Ebm as one of his Almas in 2011 and brought the young actress into the public eye at that time. Since then she has slipped into various theater and film roles of well-known Austrian directors.

She has been an ensemble member at Theater in der Josefstadt since 2014.

Martina Ebm celebrated her debut at the Josefstadt as Kathi in "Der Zerrissene". Also at the Josefstadt, Martina Ebm played the role of Sabina Spielrein in "Eine dunkle Begierde", a girl in Thomas Bernhard's "Am Ziel", Inken Peters in "Vor Sonnenuntergang" and Fritzi in "Anatol".

Martina Ebm can also be seen in various cinema and TV roles, most recently in "Die Vorstadtweiber" (director: Sabine Derflinger, Harald Sicheritz), "Manie" (director: Lior Babadostow), "Clara Immerwahr" (director: Harald Sicheritz) or "Bad Fucking" (director: Harald Sicheritz).
