Nathan Nill | BIOGRAPHY

Nathan Nill grew up in Reutlingen and, after graduating from high school, made his first documentary film about the search for his father, who was unknown to him, in Italy. In 2006 he began studying audiovisual media with a focus on directing at the Beuth Hochschule Berlin. During his studies he made various short films and documentaries. In 2007 he founded the film collective "Das Kind mit der goldenen Jacke" in Berlin.

In 2010 he began his master's degree in directing at the Hamburg Media School. His award-winning graduation film "Stufe Drei" won the Max Ophüls Prize and was screened at over 60 national and international festivals.

Nathan Nill has been working as a director for film, television and advertising in Hamburg since 2013. Since 2014 he has been the founder, producer and shareholder of "Das Kind mit der goldenen Jacke Film- produktion GmbH". He also works as a lecturer, among others at the Hamburg Media School. In 2015, Nathan Nill took over the direction of the Grimme Award-nominated ZDF series "Komm schon!". In 2017 he produced Esther Biala's feature film debut "Wo kein Schatten fällt" and in 2019 in co-production, Eliza Petkova's feature film "Das blendende Licht". He is currently working as a producer on the feature documentary "Das Ende der Welt" and is directing the series "Another Monday" for Constantin Television.
