

GREGORY KIRCHHOFF | BIOGRAPHY

Gregory Kirchhoff was born in Hamburg in 1992. After studying in England and Spain, Gregory Kirchhoff returned to Germany, where he wrote, produced and directed his feature film debut “Dusky Paradise” (2016). This was awarded 'Best Foreign Language Film' at the UK National Film Awards, among others.

At the age of 23, he was commissioned to direct his second feature film, the German comedy “Ostfriesisch für Anfänger”, which was successfully released nationwide. His third film “Baumbacher Syndrome” (screenplay, production, direction) starring Tobias Moretti and Elit İşcan opened the 53rd Hof Film Festival, won the Best Film Award at the Snowdance Festival and screened internationally at the renowned film festivals in Shanghai and Istanbul. The film was released on Netflix and HBO in 2021.

In 2021 he made his TV debut with the Dresden Tatort “Katz und Maus”, proving that he is also excellent in this genre.

Next we can look forward to the comedy series “Sweat”, conceived and directed by Gregory, in collaboration with SWR.
